

DRAGNET

THE ART SHOW

Sage Projects 333 South Street, Philadelphia PA

Presents DRAGNET, a wide ranging, inclusive art exhibition

Reception: 6-8pm on First Friday, August 7, 2009

Show dates Sunday, July 19 - August 30

Photographs and more information available

Contact: Vincent Romaniello or Jon Manteau

sagewhat@warppmail.net sageset.blogspot.com

Photographs by Heather Phillips

SAGE PROJECTS put out an All Points Bulletin “APB” for Philly’s finest (artists that is). We are on the lookout for Philadelphia area talent and aim to sweep up artists who fly under the radar along with the usual suspects.

As a result of the poor economy, Sage Projects was selected to fill one of the many vacant store fronts on South Street and we would like to return that generosity to the community. Our mission for Dragnet is to share the walls, floors and ceilings with as many artists as possible, creating an exciting, diverse survey. We place no limits on the type of artwork and accept work on a first come, first serve basis. No judges, no jury, and no commissions. We invite the public to come out and show their support during these difficult economic times and make a purchase.

Paintings, works on paper, photography, sculpture, video and more make up this wide ranging, inclusive exhibition by area talent.

Artist Reception will be from 6-8pm on First Friday, August 7, 2009.

Show dates Sunday, July 19 through August 30, 2009. Hours are Wednesday and Thursday 12-6, Friday through Sunday 2-8pm. Validated parking available (see our website).

Sage Projects is located at 333 South Street, Philadelphia, across from the TLA. Visit sageset.blogspot.com for more details for artists and art lovers.